The Trainers...

Mark C. Hill, CFP®, CDFA, is a founder and Managing Director of Pacific Wealth Management LLC®, a San Diego based investment management consulting and financial planning company. He is both a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioner and a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst™. Mark commands an attentive ear when speaking to legal and financial practice groups such as the Financial Planning Association and Institute for Divorce Financial Analysts about Collaborative Divorce and the issues that are involved in the “Financial Divorce.” He has been interviewed by publications such as Kiplinger’s Personal Finance, The Wall Street Journal and the Los Angeles Times. Mark also serves as a trainer for Collaborative Divorce Team Trainings, a group responsible for interdisciplinary trainings in the Collaborative Divorce team model throughout the United States, Canada and Australia.

Vicki Carpel Miller, BSN, MS, LMFT, is a Registered Nurse and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in private practice, specializing in the treatment of Vicarious Trauma, the practice of Collaborative Divorce, the treatment of blended families, and divorce related issues. Vicki was instrumental in bringing Collaborative Divorce to Arizona and is co-founder of the practice group Collaborative Divorce Professionals of Arizona. She functions as a Divorce Coach, Child Specialist and/or Case Manager in Collaborative Divorce cases. Vicki is a past Board member (2004-2006) of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP) and served on the Executive Board as Secretary for the organization during her final year as a Board member. She is also a past member of the IACP Standards Committee. Vicki has received advanced training in Family Mediation, Narrative Mediation, Interest-Based Negotiation, Collaborative Law and Collaborative Divorce Interdisciplinary Team Practice. Vicki provides training with Collaborative Divorce Team Trainings and has trained professionals in the United States, Canada and Australia.

Janis M. Pritchard, BA, LLB, is a member of the Law Society of Alberta and received her call to the Bar in 1977, graduating with distinction. She is a partner in the firm of Pritchard and Company LLP and her practice for the past 26 years has been restricted to family law. Janis’ practice is now restricted to Collaborative Family Law and Mediation. Janis has received advanced training in Collaborative Law, Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice, Interest Based Negotiation and Mediation. Janis is the founding President of the Association of Collaborative Professionals - Medicine Hat & Brooks Alberta. Janis was key to implementing Collaborative Divorce in Medicine Hat and other centers in Canada and providing Collaborative training in Canada, Austria, Australia and the United States. Janis is a former member of the Board of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP) where she co-chaired the IACP Board Committee dealing with Standards for Collaborative Professionals and co-chaired the Advisory Council on Collaborative Training and Practice of the IACP. The Medicine Hat Collaborative Divorce group has revolutionized the divorce process for clients and the practice of family law in Medicine Hat.

Tamara Rounds, MSW, LCSW, is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Family Therapist. Tamara divides her professional time between Arizona State University where she is a lecturer and her private practice where she specializes in child, adult, family, and adolescent issues. Tamara is the 2006 recipient of the ASU Most Distinguished Faculty Award for her innovative coursework in Mind-Body Integration and speaking presence in the classroom. She is also an active member of the Collaborative Divorce Professionals of Arizona and functions as a Divorce Coach, Child Specialist and/or Case Manager in Collaborative Divorce cases.

Collaborative Divorce Team Trainings LLC (CDTT) is comprised of the following trainers; Nancy Ross, BCD, LCSW (co-founder of the Collaborative Divorce Model), Janis Pritchard, LLB, George Richardson, JD, Vicki Carpel Miller, BSN, MS, LMFT, Tamara Rounds, LCSW and Mark Hill, CDFA. CDTT Trainer Trainees will be present at this training and may include Ellie Izzo, PhD, David Horowitz, JD and Robert Simon, PhD. Jean Petrick is the training coordinator for the organization. CDTT reserves the right to substitute trainers as needed at this training.

What to expect. Participants will study their roles in separate discipline break-out sessions and then problem-solve, with other professionals, in a team setting using case studies from actual collaborative cases.

Who should attend? The attendees will include legal, mental health, and financial professionals. Completion of this course will satisfy the training requirements for membership in the Collaborative Divorce Professionals of Arizona.

This course may be eligible for up to 20 hours of continuing education. Please check with your licensing agency.
